CONSTRUCTION NEWS

The Trinity River Authority (TRA) has completed the sanitary sewer pipeline project on our property. Normal hours of operation for the Club can be resumed.

Part of this project was to plant numerous trees in the area behind the rifle/pistol range (on top of the hill). The contractor is working on an agreement with us to access this area on Tuesday mornings to water these new trees. The ranges will be closed when personnel are down range doing this maintenance work. They have a two-year maintenance period (or guarantee) with TRA and have to replace the trees that do not survive.

Work is also progressing on the construction of the rifle range eyebrow. This baffle, located at the top of the impact area, is to help prevent a stray bullet from leaving the property. The posts have been installed and the baffle plates are being fabricated. There will be times that the rifle/pistol range is closed when work is being done down range. Notices will be placed on the ranges as needed. Please be patient with this construction, which helps insure the existence of our facility.

Thank you for your understanding during the TRA construction and with the eyebrow construction. We do have one of the best facilities in the state and it just keeps getting better!

Beginner's League Wrap-up

May 30th will be the last afternoon of the league and we will shoot 2 regular rounds of skeet so the beginners will have a feel of what they have learned. I think several will shoot over 20.

As usual in this league there was a 50% drop out rate, but the ones that came every week made steady improvements. Hopefully next year more will participate. I want to give thanks to the members that helped instruct. Bill Schweitzer, Gil George, David Anderson, Gene Wills and Richard Kummer.

Recipe Corner

Barbecue Pot Roast

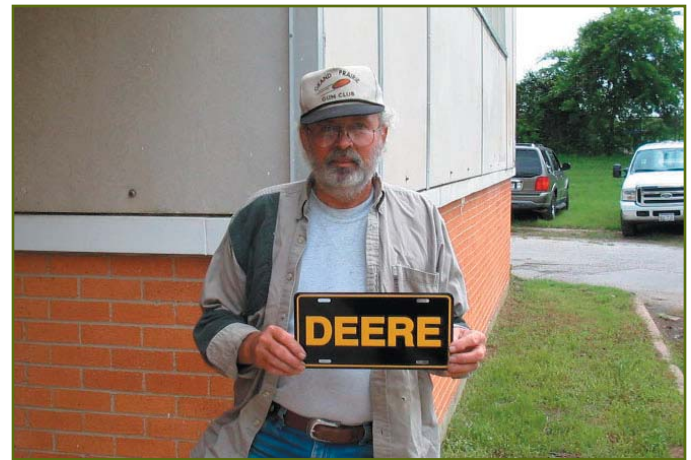

- 1 or 2 7-bone or blade pot roasts, 2" thick
- 3 Tbsp. bacon fat or lard
- 1/2 tsp. each, salt and pepper
- 3 medium onions, sliced
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 8-ounce can tomato sauce
- 1 cup water plus 1/4 tsp. Tabasco sauce
- 3 Tbsp. brown sugar
- 1 to 2 tsp. each, chili powder and dry mustard
- 1/4 cup cider vinegar
- 2 Tbsp. spicy steak sauce

Trim meat, if needed. Heat bacon fat in a Dutch oven (extra-large for 2 roasts); brown meat on all sides. Remove meat from pot and sprinkle with salt and pepper.

Add onions and garlic to pot; cook over medium heat and stir until onions are golden brown. Place meat on top of onions. Mix tomato sauce and water-Tabasco mixture; pour over meat and onions. Bring to a boil, cover and cook at a slow boil for 1-1/2 hours.

Mix sugar, chili powder, dry mustard, cider vinegar and steak sauce; pour over meat and onions. Cover and cook 1 hour. Baste with sauce once or twice. Remove roast and thicken sauce with 2 Tbsp. all-purpose flour and water, if desired.

One roast makes 4 to 6 servings.
