Recipe Corner

Bacon BBQ Bird

When you BBQ smaller wild bird like dove, quail, chukar, grouse etc., it tends to be a little on the dry side. This recipe will definitely fix that.

- 8 Birds of your choice
- 1 pound fresh bacon
- 1/2 cup Italian salad dressing
- 1 Tbsp. paprika
- 1 tsp. ground sage
- 1/2 tsp. galic powder
- salt and pepper

Marinate birds in Italian salad dressing overnight. Pat dry, season with paprika, ground sage, garlic powder, salt and pepper to taste. Wrap each bird with bacon slices. If you use more than one slice of bacon to cover the bird match the seams on the same side. Place the birds on a medium-hot grill, bacon seam side down. Cover and grill for 15 minutes. Turn and grill another 15 minutes. Test the bird with a fork, if it is not tender, cook an additional 15 minutes. Baked beans, stuffing, fresh vegetables, and bread of your choice would be an excellent complement for this entree. After your birds are done throw the bacon into your pot of baked beans for excellent seasoning.

Driven Pheasant Tower Shoot

Procedures and Rules

- Shooting grounds consist of 20 shooting positions that are from 75 to 150 yards from the tower.
- Each station is occupied by one or two shooters. (20 minimum - 40 maximum)
- Nine pheasants per shooter are released during the shoot.
- Pheasants are released two at a time.
- Shooting positions are situated to allow only overhead shooting at pheasants that have a flying start of at least 75 yards.
- Most shots are from 40 to 60 yards long. Full choke 12 gauge recommended.
- Shooters rotate after each shooting period. During the shoot each shooter rotates completely around the tower, so everyone has equal opportunity.
- Halfway through the shoot we take a break for refreshments.
- When the shooting is completed, all shooters return to the club house for a barbecue lunch of beef, ribs and sausage.
- All birds are cleaned and divided equally.
- The first six shooters paying a $75.00 cleanup hunt fee can return after lunch to the tower area to hunt the pheasants that escaped.
- 2006-2007 Price is $205.00 per Gun

Corsicana, Texas
